Twenty thousand voters said such a man should be there.

Who won't he war? According to war ethics, the nation who loses must pay the cost. The French Premier. M. Clemenceau, says the French becople are paying $45 per, while the Germans are paying only $17 per. He says the French lost 6000 villages, while Germany lost none. He says in the end, it looks like France got the worst of the deal. We are beginning to see it that way outselves. And judging from the losses and the gains, the question will naturally arise in the minds of the public, who won the war?

Oh well, its only a few of the Ku Klux stripe who protested against the use of the Kings Théatre by the National Baptist Convention. You will find that class everywhere. If the Almighty would have peace in Heaven, surely there is no place for that class, who hatch his brother.
